News From the Plateau

A little bit of everything

Congratulations to club member Ben Batts for winning the Sportsman Class of IMAC in our region!

Well Done Ben!

Going On the Road!

Jim Sachleben & Steve Ort are planning to attend "every Swap Meet in the Midwest Area!" They would like to invite anyone who would like to go along, to join them!

Jeff Hughes

Great Plane Seawind EP with 25 amp controller and Rimfire motor/prop for $110. Only has about 6 flights and never been underwater!

Blade Dancer with motor/prop/controller and 3 servos. Just need receiver and one more servo. $50. Has 3 season on it, so it's not real pretty, but flies good.

Jim: I forgot that I needed to make a request of you. Would you please post some NO SMOKING signs both on the exterior (near the door) and the interior of your storage shed? Since it is an enclosed structure, methane gas may accumulate inside. We do want any accidents. The door to the shed should be opened for a few minutes, to allow air exchange before anyone enters the structure too. I would also request that you discuss this potential hazard with club members. No ignition sources of any type should be present inside the shed. This includes, but is not limited to smoking, open flames, running engines, or stored batteries. Thanks in advance for your help Jim.

Sincerely, Jim Murray, Director Bartholomew County Solid Waste Management District

Bulk industrial grade medium CA

Leisure RC Models has made a one time (at least for now) purchase of bulk industrial grade medium CA. This is a high quality CA, and I will be sharing this with interested club members at a very low price (approximately 1/2 of the street price). This item is more of a service than a money maker for LRCM priced at just $2.50 an ounce. The catch is you will need to have your own glue bottles. (As of yet, I have not found any empty bottles at a reasonable price) . I will be bringing the bulk container to the field on occasion (cooled accordingly) for filling club members empties. First come, first served (and quantity), while it lasts.

Maps/Meetings

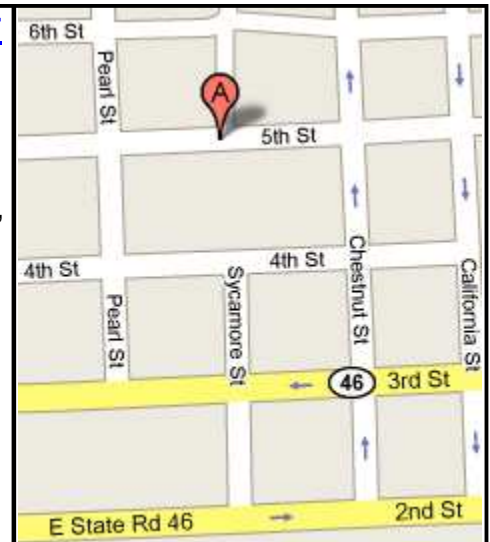

BCRCF Monthly Club meetings are held locally at Sadies Family Dining (2991 25th St, Columbus, IN) on the 2nd Tue of each month beginning at 7pm. We also enjoy an optional pre-meeting dinner starting at 6pm. Come join us!

We are pleased to have a BCRCF Indoor flying facility for 'the '09-'10. indoor flying season.

St Peters Lutheran School is graciously allowing us to use their Gym at 719 5th Street, Columbus, IN. We will have flying session from 3pm to 5pm every other Sunday, (except 12/20) from 8-Nov-09 to 28-Mar-10. Cost is $35/season or $5 session.

Contact Russ Kuhn (see above) to get signed up! A valid AMA, Into Pilot, or Park Pilot license is required for all pilots.

The BCRCF Outdoor Flying Facility is located on the plateau of the closed ex-Columbus landfill east of Columbus, IN on St Road 46E (State Street). From I-65 take exit route 46E (#68), & follow 46E through Columbus, and then thru the small town of Petersville, IN. Just east of Petersville is the flying site entrance. The site is locked, but all club members & officers have keys. Please contact any club officer to obtain access to the flying site. Come join us!

For more information: Send us an email at bcrcliers@yahoo.com, or contact any club officer (see contact information above).
